

Command Philosophy

MTACS-18 is located in a region at the epicenter of global economic activity and geopolitical competition – a region often plagued by instability and inhabited by three significant U.S. adversaries. Our mission is critical to 1st MAW and III MEF success. Without the TACC, there is no MACCS; without the MACCS, there is no integrated MAGTF. Each of us play a critical role in bringing the TACC to bear and in achieving our nation's strategic objectives in the Pacific. We need effective, engaged, and committed leadership to ensure success in this environment.

Individual
Family

Relationships

Treat everyone with dignity and respect
Be professional in all you do
Take care of each other
Lead, teach, coach, mentor, train

Basics

Excellence is a byproduct of brilliance in the basics
Maintain high standards; always seek to exceed them
Hold others to standard; failing to do so implicitly sets a new standard
Take pride in what you do; have pride in who you/we are
Be honest, trustworthy, courageous, and of the highest integrity
